Established over 40 years ago, Far West Outdoor offers an innovative mix of outdoor advertising products throughout Calgary and its surrounding areas. Our professional staff has the experience to assist you in the strategic planning, creative development and cost effective production of your outdoor advertising campaign.

It is this dedication to complete service and outstanding quality that has earned Far West Outdoor and our partners Calgary Outdoor and American Anthem, a reputation as a leader in the field of Outdoor Advertising and product development in Calgary and the surrounding area.

We owe our success to the continued patronage of leading national and local companies and advertising agencies. We proudly supply them with an increasing number of specialized services, at competitive prices. Contact us today for your outdoor advertising solutions.
